Kaye Young, the man who put NIACC wrestling back on the map in 1998, accomplished two big things this year while steering the NAACO junior varsity to success.

Young's team placed first in the region all four years and had a collective record of 86-2-2. Most importantly, Young helped produce a national championship team in 1999.

The team first appeared in the final stage in 1999. Young went on to become one of the best high schools in the state.

Young has been the head coach at NIACC since 1994. He has won more than 300 matches and has a career record of 158-34-1.

In 1998, his team placed fifth in the state championship. In 1999, his team placed third.

Young said he was elated to see his team make it to the state championships.

Young's team has been successful in high school. He has a three-year state record of 66-2-1 and placed second at state this year in 1999.

Fergus has won 153 matches, all of which were won by fall, and has a career record of 155-29-2.

In 1998, his team placed third in the state championship. In 1999, his team placed second.
